

MEDIA ADVISORY

April 14, 2009

Multi-Casualty Incident (MCI) mock scenario

The media is invited to a unique training exercise with District students in the Emergency Medical Responder (EMR) dual-credit program and Justice Institute of B.C. students in the Primary Care Paramedic course.

This training exercise will help to prepare future paramedics for real-world emergencies such as earthquakes and multi-vehicle traffic accidents involving several casualties.

In the 5-month EMR program, grade 11 and 12 students have the opportunity to earn post-secondary credits with the Justice Institute of B.C., the main organization in the province offering certified paramedic training.

When: 10:35 a.m. on April 16, 2009

Where: Rutland Senior Secondary back parking lot (across from the Rutland Arena)

Who: Rutland Senior Emergency Medical Responder (EMR) students, Justice Institute of BC paramedic students
