Ceremony Celebrates Primary School Closing on May 14, 2009

The original Okanagan Mission Primary school opened in 1917 at the current St. Andrew's Square location. After fire destroyed that early structure, a new school was built on Eldorado Road in 1948. Today after more than 60 years as a community fixture, Okanagan Mission/Anne McClymont Primary will officially close.

Join us in celebrating the school's long history and the educators, students and parents who made it a memorable part of the community.
