School District No. 23 (Central Okanagan) Celebrates World Teachers' Day

Since World Teachers' Day was established by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) more than a decade ago, October 5th has been a special day to recognize and celebrate the contributions that teachers make to their students and society in general. Throughout the world, there are approximately 30 million teachers and education workers who are dedicated to delivering the gifts of literacy, numeracy and the other essential skills required in the 21st Century. Many of these educators even risk their lives as they strive to create brighter futures for their students.

The Board of Education and staff of School District No. 23 (Central Okanagan) pay tribute to our highly skilled teachers who serve as important role models for the more than 21,000 children in our District.

At the September 23rd public meeting, the Chairperson of the Central Okanagan Board of Education declared October 5th to be a day of recognition within the school district.

Thank you to all School District No. 23 teachers. We appreciate your hard work and dedication, not just on October 5th, but throughout the year.
