Compose Yourself: a School-wide Musical Extravaganza

On Wednesday May 5, Pearson Road Elementary will have their first school-wide musical performance of Compose Yourself. The young voices will be accompanied by adult vocalists (staff members) and skilled musicians on cello and piano. The performances are free of charge.

Paul Domby, an accomplished musician and the school's musical director and prep teacher, is coordinating the event.

"This is a funny play that introduces students to many of the famous composers and their musical contributions," says Principal Susan MacNeil.

"Come listen to Bach, Beethoven, Brahms et al through the voices of Pearson Road Elementary School children. You will not be disappointed!"

When: Wednesday May 5 at 12:15 p.m. and 6:30 pm

Where: Pearson Road Elementary
 700 Pearson Road
