“Help Haiti” Drive-thru Breakfast at Okanagan Mission

On Friday, February 19, commuters can pull over and enjoy a delicious breakfast to go while helping victims of the Haiti earthquake. Student volunteers from Okanagan Mission Secondary will be serving breakfast from 7:00 to 10:00 a.m. on Gordon Drive in front of the school.

“Our school has a fundraising goal of $10,000,” says Hayley Manlove, a student in teacher Katie Nault’s Social Justice class. “So far we have raised $5,100 dollars. Costco and Starbucks are generously donating the food for Friday morning so that help will help us reach our goal faster.”

Please help to spread the word by asking commuters to leave home hungry on Friday then stop by OKM for coffee, tea, muffins, scones, yogurt and fruit.
