Raise Your Voice – Song, Dance and Auction

On Thursday, March 25, Glenmore Elementary students and other performers from the community will present their second annual Raise Your Voice gala night of song and dance benefiting humanitarian work in Uganda. Tickets for the 6:15 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. shows at the Kelowna Community Theatre are just $10.

Silent auctions will take place during the half hour prior to each performance. Auction items include Okanagan Symphony tickets, a guitar, two djembe drums, spa baskets, a wine basket, jewellery, African art originals and more.

“Shaw cable is airing 'Kelowna's Got Amazing Young Talent' tonight and tomorrow,” says Rhonda Draper, a music teacher and winner of the Governor General’s award for teaching Canadian history. “Please watch the footage promoting this beautiful concert and come out and support this fundraiser for Niteo.”

Glenmore Elementary teachers, staff and students have been very active in fundraising for Niteo Kids (www.niteoafrica.org), a Kelowna-based non-governmental organization that provides support and resources for youth in Uganda. Volunteers from the Okanagan have travelled to Uganda to help build an orphanage and exchange the wisdom of diverse cultures.

When: 6:15 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 25, 2010

Where: Kelowna Community Theatre
