StrongStart Grand Openings in School District No. 23

The media and public are welcome to visit three upcoming StrongStart Centre official grand openings in Lake Country, Kelowna and West Kelowna.

In attendance will be families who already participate at these StrongStart Centres as well as Principals, Directors of Instruction, District leadership, Board of Education Trustees and local Members of the Legislative Assembly.

StrongStart is a school-based early learning program and the beginning of a special partnership between families and schools. It is free for preschool-aged children (with an emphasis on 3- and 4-year-olds) and their parents, grandparents or caregivers.
