Section Seven: Community Partnerships

706 - DISTRICT STUDENT COUNCIL

Introduction

The Board of Education recognizes the importance of involving students to participate in the Board process. The Board supports the establishment of a District Student Council and values their participation and contribution.

Purpose

The purpose of the District Student Council is to:

- create a connection between students and the Board to facilitate input into District decisions;
- advocate for the betterment of student life;
- assume an active leadership role on behalf of students;
- promote positive relationships between schools.
