I have just read the newspaper and see how Lee-Ann Tiede has been attacked Before we all stood up and recited the Lord's Prayer and also the Canadian anthem. Now if it had to do with religion it is a problem

The problem is the haters in this world They are trying to get rid of any kind of love and freedom and God. This is wrong and detrimental to the children of today. It does speak in the bible about the wicked attacking the children in end times. I support Lee-Ann 100 percent

I believe the Lord's Prayer should be said every day at the beginning of school and at the end. God is there for all of us and to protect us

These evil doers are NOT All they want is to end Christianity. This is a war of good and evil. If Lee-Ann is fired.

Then that will show that the school board is supporting the wrong side

That man in the newspaper should be ashamed Vanessa Lewry
