Hello Kimberly,

Yesterday we found out from our son [REDACTED] that guitars etc. instruments similar size won't be allowed in the bus.? It is very disheartening that this change was just announced in the bus without prior notice.

We rely on the school bus getting our kids to school and back home. Him not being able to transport his guitar in the bus would prevent him practicing at home and partaking in the band class at school. He has told us there isn't enough guitars in class for everyone to borrow and like any musician he wants to use his own instrument whenever possible.

If this change is indeed happening then we are considering pulling [REDACTED] from band as he wouldn't be reaching his full potential. Which would hurt [REDACTED] he loves his music and peers in band.

Who thought this would be a good idea without consulting the people that it affects.?

Respectfully,
Saara Trist
