

Dear Senior Staff, Trustees, and Partner Groups,

Today, District Student Council had our final meeting of the school year. At our last meeting of the year, the council votes on who they would like to see lead the council for the following school year. On behalf of DSC, we are pleased to announce the appointment of our Co-Presidents for the upcoming 2023/2024 school year. After speeches and a vote using secret ballots, the council voted on Cayden Jensen and Sarah Kovacs to lead the council.

Cayden, a dedicated student currently attending George Elliot Secondary, has demonstrated exemplary leadership qualities throughout this past year on DSC. His passion for fostering a sense of unity among students, coupled with his strong communication skills, makes him an excellent choice for this prestigious role. Cayden's commitment to inclusivity and his ability to inspire his peers will undoubtedly contribute to a thriving and vibrant council.

Alongside Cayden, Sarah from Okanagan Mission Secondary will join in the role of Co-President. Sarah's natural talent for organization and her ability to envision transformative initiatives will undoubtedly leave a lasting impact on our school district. Sarah, having joined DSC this year, her passion for community service and advocacy has already shined through the council. The council is in good standing with her leadership.

Cayden and Sarah will officially assume their roles as Co-Presidents on June 30th of this year. DSC is filled with enthusiasm for the possibilities that lie ahead under their leadership. The diverse perspectives, dedication, and leadership skills that Cayden and Sarah bring to the table will undoubtedly shape our district community positively.

District Student Council is excited to work alongside Cayden and Sarah, as their leadership will usher in a year filled with innovation, inclusivity, and memorable experiences. The council has full confidence in their abilities to guide our school community towards greater heights, and the council looks forward to the positive changes they will inspire.

Please join District Student Council in congratulating Cayden Jensen and Sarah Kovacs on their appointment as Co-Presidents for the 2023/2024 school year. Please rally behind them, providing unwavering support and encouragement as they embark on this exciting journey.

Sincerely,

Zach Johnson
