LOCAL AGREEMENT WITH TEACHERS

The Board of Education of School District No. 23 (Central Okanagan) and the Central Okanagan Teachers' Association (COTA) are pleased to announce that the parties have reached agreement on all local matters that are negotiated at the District level for the renewal of the Collective Agreement that covers approximately 1,500 Teachers and Education Professionals of the Central Okanagan School District.

This "Local Matters Agreement" has been ratified by both parties and will be submitted to the British Columbia Public Schools Employers' Association (BCPSEA) and the British Columbia Teachers' Federation (BCTF) for inclusion in the final Collective Agreement. Negotiations are continuing between BCPSEA and the BCTF on contract matters that are bargained provincially and impact all School Districts in the province.

Inquiries can be directed to Moyra Baxter, Board Chair for the Central Okanagan School District, at 250-767-6153, or to Alice Rees, COTA President, at 250-860-3866.
