Dear Board Members,

Our family was extremely disappointed to witness the recent treatment of School Board Member, Amy Geislinger. The behaviour displayed by Wilber Turner, marked by discriminatory accusations and public disparagement through the media, was both inappropriate and disrespectful, particularly toward Amy.

It is especially troubling that Wilber has publicly disparaged an elected official without challenge. By allowing this incident to occur, a concerning message has been sent to both the community and our students, one that suggests differing opinions are not welcome.

We believe a public apology to Amy and an acknowledgment to the community are necessary. Respectful dialogue and the inclusion of multiple perspectives should be core values of our school district, and we hope to see those values reflected in your actions moving forward.

Sincerely,
Charm Casson
