4:36 pm: The Deputy Superintendent of Schools rejoined the meeting.

DISCUSSION/INFORMATION ITEMS

School Fees Discussion (Ministry of Education School Fee Guidelines)

The Assistant Secretary-Treasurer provided an overview of the Ministry of Education's guidelines regarding what school districts can charge fees for. Some examples include specialty programs, school supplies, and optional field studies or special events. Currently, Central Okanagan Public Schools charges fees related to standard fees (e.g. optional school supply, cultural, and student activity), transportation fees, academy fees, as well as goods and services fees (e.g. yearbooks, uniforms, field studies, musical instrument rentals, and graduation ceremonies).

The Assistant Secretary-Treasurer stated that although school districts may charge fees under the Ministry of Education's guidelines, the Ministry of Education also requires boards of education to also have a financial hardship policy to help students who are in financial need. The Central Okanagan Public Schools' financial hardship policy is defined in Board Regulation 425R - Student Fees (Regulations), section 8.
