Dear Carole,

We are writing to extend heartfelt congratulations on your recent election as President of the BC Teachers' Federation. This achievement is a testament to your dedication, leadership, and unwavering commitment to education.

We are confident that under your leadership, the BCTF will continue to thrive and make significant strides in advocating for quality education and professional development.

Once again, congratulations on this well-deserved accomplishment. We look forward to witnessing the impactful work you will continue to do.

Yours sincerely,

Julia Fraser, Chair
Board of Education
